

COATS FOR LITTLE MISSY ARE SIMPLE AND COZY

THERE are coats and coats for little persons from two years old up to twelve, most of them of warm, soft wool materials, simply designed and trimmed. The wool fabrics include duvetyne and similar softs, broadcloth, velours, camel's hair, chinchilla—in fact, any good substantial and pliable wool; and many are the thrifty and resourceful mothers who make coats for their little girls from garments that are passed on by older members of the family. Velvet and silk become important when the smallest member of the family must be provided for; she is the proud owner of more than one coat—or may be—her mother is clever with the needle. These little coats are not difficult to make by the patterns which pattern companies provide. Narrow bands of fur, or plush and simple needlework are used for their decoration.

The coat of velours shown in the illustration, is representative of this season's models. It is cozy looking, with its close-fitting collar of fur, fur bands on the cuffs and pockets and big fur buttons. Nearly all children's coats are like it in outline, except those that take on a cape that reaches a little below the elbows. There are several models that introduce a yoke, especially among coats for tiny girls. Turned-back cuffs, often bordered with fur, and wide collars that fit snugly about the throat and are also edged with narrow fur bands, dispose of these two details in nearly all models.

36½ Miles to a Gallon of Gas

In a recent test to show the effect of careful driving on gasoline consumption a Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Touring Car established the record rate of 36½ miles to the gallon. All five Chevrolet cars used averaged 33½ miles to the gallon.

The conditions of this test will interest every automobile owner. For economy is the greatest factor in motor transportation. And it means a great deal to know that the expense of operation is entirely within the driver's control.

It was to prove this point that the test made in Seattle, Washington, was undertaken. Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Cars were chosen because they are so widely used and because practically everyone is familiar with the fact that between twenty and twenty-five miles to the gallon is their usual average.

The rules forbade any change other than carburetor adjustments and a careful inspection was made at the start to make certain that each car was in standard condition. The route 15½ miles long, was carefully chosen to include as nearly as possible the average conditions of daily travel, hills, city traffic and country roads. There was no limit. And each driver was accompanied by an impartial observer.

At the start each gasoline tank was filled to overflowing. When the cars arrived at this finish line each tank was again filled to the brim from an accurate one gallon measure and the balance poured from the measure into equal half-gallon glass jars.

By measuring the quantity in the latter it was found that the winning "Four-Ninety" had used slightly less than a half a gallon, or at the exact rate of 36½ miles to the gallon of gasoline.

All five had averaged 33 1-5 miles to the gallon.

Never use a scissors to cut fur. Dampen the skin side and stretch on a board with the fur side down. Fasten with small wire nails as fine as a pin. When the skin is thoroughly dry, measure and chalk. Cut with a paring knife or any kind of sharp knife. Sew carefully with fine stitches, using cotton thread.

11-Year Goutre Is Quickly Removed

Detroit Woman Relieved of Pain and Distress by Home Remedy.

Miss Verna Ross, 58 Grayling Ave., Detroit, Michigan, says in her own home paper, the Detroit Free Press: "My friends have been asking 'What has happened to your gaiter?' One said 'Ladies' Goutre' has cured my misery. It was reduced nearly ten inches. It has been growing 11 years. It used to make me sore and it looked terrible. I feel it my duty to tell everyone about my cure, either personally or by letter."

Scaled Goutre comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with daily work. Leaves parts in beautiful, normal condition. Requires 10 minutes daily.

24½ Million Dollars Invested by Employes of Swift & Company

More than 21,000 employes of Swift & Company own or are paying for shares in the business. These men and women have attested their faith in the integrity and good will of the company by investing their savings in the business.

Their holdings represent a total of nearly 250,000 shares, the par value ($100 a share) of which is more than $24,500,000.

These 21,000 represent more than one-third of our average number of employes!

One man out of every three, in plant, office, and branch house, from the handworker on the floor to the brain worker at the desk; working with us as well as for us, devoting himself to his own business while devoting himself to ours; promoting his own interests in every motion or moment saved, in every product improved or maintained at perfection, in every service rendered through prompt, thorough, effective distribution of products.

This interested, eager group of fellow partners working with us for the good of Swift & Company and the public which we serve, constitutes one-half of the ownership of Swift & Company in point of numbers, and nearly one-sixth in point of shares outstanding.

It represents practical and successful progress toward the end at which enlightened modern industry is aiming for the solution of industrial problems—toward cooperation, mutuality, brotherhood in business, for the good of all.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

QUICK SERVICE

The reason we are able to not only promise quick service but to also render quick service is accounted for by three things: we employ only men of the highest experience and reliability; we furnish the proper tools; we strive to please—and we do!
